Chiming of the Hour

Centering Words & Candle Lighting

Laura Keller

O God, make the door of this house wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship, narrow enough to shut out envy, pride, and strife. Make its threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling block to children, nor to straying feet, but rugged and strong enough to turn back evil's power. God, make the door of this house the gateway to your eternal kingdom.

Call to Worship

Harry Wooten

O God of the crucified Christ,
Hope of the despised and rejected,

Open our hearts to your grace.

Open our lives to all people.

Open our eyes to see you in the stranger.

Open our ears to hear your voice in the cry of the poor.

Open our hands to serve you among the humble.

Open our arms to embrace you in our enemy.

Open our hearts to receive your grace.

—Steve Garnaas-Holmes

Invocation

Harry Wooten

God of love, today help us to live peaceably with all. Help us live in genuine love: to love our neighbors as ourselves, and to love you, O God, with our whole heart, mind and strength. In Jesus' loving name. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Tim Schaefer

Mothering God, stand with us in our trials.

The pain is too much to bear,
our world has dealt so “shrewdly” with your people
that your renewal seems impossible.

O God, have mercy on us.

Fears of economic uncertainty confront us all
and seem to limit our choices.

O God, have mercy on us.

Fears of immigrants and strangers in our midst
seem to require walls.

Fears about changing traditions
seem to require blocks to new family expressions.

O God, have mercy on us.

Today we pray especially for those we name now silently or aloud or post in the comments section.

We pray this week for Jacob Blake, Trayford Pellerin, their families, and all of our siblings of color experiencing racism and violence throughout our country.

We also pray for the safety of families in the path of tropical storms and wildfires.
And the first responders responding to these natural disasters.

Let us pray:

God of mercy, our love isn't always genuine. We see evil and wring our hands instead of resisting it. We forget to consider more ways to serve you. We turn our backs on strangers who could benefit from our hospitality. We do not pray enough for our enemies. We associate with our own kind, fearing the “other”. We relish in fantasies of revenge. For all this, and for all that burdens our hearts today, O God, have mercy on us and hear our prayers. Amen.

Communion

Worshippers

We thank you, God, for the promise of this meal: presence to break the bonds of isolation, power to overcome our powerlessness. We thank you, God, for the promise of this day: new life for tired spirits, victory for the faithful. Help us to reach out to each other in community and hospitality, to be agents of renewal. May your resurrection happen in and through us.

God, we remember the Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed.

He took bread, broke it and said:

This is my body, broken for you.

And in the same way he took the cup, saying:

This is my blood, shed for you.

Communion Prayer

All praise is yours, O God. You bring us to this table as fellow pilgrims. Lead us now, through each of our moments, to that glorious day when all your children will gather as family. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who is our peace made flesh. Amen.

Blessing

Michael Gregg

Go out into the world in peace;
have courage;
hold on to what is good;
return no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted;
support the weak, and help the suffering;
honor all people;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Amen.

The Scripture this morning is Romans 12:9-21

⁹Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; ¹⁰love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. ¹¹Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. ¹²Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. ¹³Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. ¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. ¹⁷Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. ¹⁸If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. ¹⁹Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." ²⁰No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.
