When Great Trees Fall

Maya Angelou wrote a powerful poem called "When Great Trees Fall" about the impact of important people in our lives. These "Great Trees" have grown among us, becoming fixtures of wisdom, protection, and generosity. We've had some great and mighty trees in our families, church, and nation who have fallen this year. Yet, because they were a part of our lives, we find the strength and vision to grow goodness, sprout passion, and enable a thriving vision. As we near All Saints Sunday next month, I know we feel far apart and disconnected as this season of isolation lingers on. Even so, the saints of Royal Lane bind us together, providing comfort when we feel lonely and strength when we feel weak. So, as we remember those who have grown deep roots in our church, sheltering us with comforting shade and flourishing wisdom, may we be better versions of ourselves as we plant hope in our world.

When Great Trees Fall by Maya Angelou

When great trees fall,
rocks on distant hills shudder,
lions hunker down
in tall grasses,
and even elephants
lumber after safety.
When great trees fall
in forests,
small things recoil into silence,
their senses
eroded beyond fear.
When great souls die,
the air around us becomes
light, rare, sterile.
We breathe, briefly.
Our eyes, briefly,
see with
a hurtful clarity.

Our memory, suddenly sharpened,
examines,
gnaws on kind words
unsaid,
promised walks
never taken.
Great souls die and our reality, bound to
them, takes leave of us.
Our souls,
dependent upon their
nurture,
now shrink, wizened.
Our minds, formed
and informed by their radiance, fall away.

We are not so much maddened
as reduced to the unutterable ignorance of
dark, cold
caves.
And when great souls die,
after a period peace blooms,
slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration.
Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed. They existed.
We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.

September Missions Thank You

Thank you, Royal Lane Family!

Every week in September we delivered bags and bags of snacks and drinks to the teachers and staff at Foster Elementary School in Northwest Dallas. Irma de la Guardia (pictured below) is the principal at Foster Elementary, and she wanted us to know how much these treats helped boost the morale of the teachers and staff. Many of the families at Foster are experiencing joblessness right now, so both the staff and families are under a lot of stress. Principal de la Guardia explained that they don't have any extra financial resources to treat the teachers, so our gifts came at the perfect time. Because of your generosity, the teachers and staff at Foster began their year feeling appreciated and loved.

October Missions Project

Tango Tab Feed the City

We are excited to bring a new missions project to you that you and your families can do together at home. We are partnering with Tango Tab's Feed The City program. Tango Tab is an organization that has been fighting hunger in our city since 2015. We will pack paper lunch sacks at home with shelf stable food which will be given out to people in need throughout the metroplex.

In each bag you will put

- 1 granola bar,
- 1 apple sauce or tuna pouch, and
- 1 bottle of water

Please write an encouraging message on each paper bag, for example "You are loved".

The Missions Division volunteers will add a piece of fruit before we deliver them to Tango Tab. We would love for Royal Laners to provide at least 100 lunches, and more if we can. How many can your family make?

Drop off your bags at these times at Royal Lane Baptist Church

Wednesday, October 14th, 6-8pm

Friday October 16th, 7:00pm (please stay for the Prayer Walk!)

Saturday October 17th 10am-12pm

If you need another time to drop off your sack lunches, we will gladly work with you, just contact Charlotte Sewell or Laura Keller.

Thank you all!

Stewardship 2021

Our stewardship theme for this year is "The Ties That Bind". We are bound together by many aspects of our lives even though we cannot be physically together every Wednesday night and Sunday morning. We are grateful for all the ways our ties have not changed due to COVID-19. As a church community we continue to care for the vulnerable and those who struggle with chronic health issues. We reach out to the elderly. We teach our children. We worship virtually. And we help each other in hard times.
