The Box Gallery Opens May 1
with
Art, Cookies (and Punch), and Conversation
The Faith in Arts Committee

The long-awaited reopening of the Box Gallery for viewing will finally become reality on Sunday, May 1, featuring the works (oils and acrylics) created by RLBC member Harry Hunter. This event fortuitously coincides with the WOC first Sunday Cookies and Conversation gathering. So, plan to join us on May 1 following worship to enjoy a cookie and a glass of punch while viewing this exciting and surprising exhibit and learning from Harry about his artistic journey. Harry has been painting for less than two years (less time than the Box Gallery has been closed) and has amassed a considerable and varied selection of works, some of which will be available for purchase. The Faith and Arts Committee looks forward to welcoming you and your friends and neighbors on May 1.

Sunday, April 24

Committal service and inurnment
will be held in the Royal Lane Columbarium, following worship, Sunday, April 24,
for Maebelle & Rex Raiza.

*The next issues of The Mosaic are scheduled for May 4 & 18, 2022.
The deadline for submissions will be 5:00 p.m. Monday prior to the date of publication.*

Sarah Macias and I are so excited to host you at the magical Sister Grove Farm in Van Alstyne—approximately an hour north of Dallas. The farm is easy to access and is located at 1731 Jim Cannon Road.

Please check out the weather report before you get dressed that day; dress in comfortable clothes, including a light jacket for the evening and comfy shoes to walk around the property. You will also need a notebook and a pen. A yummy lunch, dinner, and a few snacks will be provided.

Can't wait to see you there for a day of spiritual restoration and renewal!
