Celebration!

Steve Graham

August 5, 2022 is our 50th Wedding Anniversary! Jennifer and I were married on August 5, 1972.

Just a little over two years later in 1974 we moved to Dallas to serve with you at Royal Lane! That was yesterday, but it is hardly gone. We are still very much encouraged by your initiatives to be a gracious people.

Though our anniversary date is not until August, we will travel next week with family and friends to Santa Fe, New Mexico. On Saturday night, July 16, we will share a celebration dinner at Rancho de Chimayo in Chimayo, NM. Many years ago we dined at this restaurant while on a mission trip with a wonderful group from RLBC! We have valued our memories of that evening.

This Sunday, July 10th, after worship we plan to begin our travel and our celebration.

I'm grateful that Rick Carpenter and Charles Johnson will preach on July 17th and 24th.

I will return to Dallas on July 25.

The Education, Missions, and Worship Divisions invite you to participate in A Celebration of Public Education on Saturday July 16 from 4:30pm-6pm in Vickrey Hall with Charles Foster Johnson, Executive Director of Pastors for Texas Children.

- 4:30pm to 5pm – a time to gather and visit with light refreshments
- 5pm to 5:20pm – a time to hear about the work of PTC and the cause of public education
- 5:20pm to 6pm – a time for facilitated conversation on how we can cultivate support of our schools through acts of social justice and legislation that puts the needs of Texas children, families, and communities first.

Pastors for Texas Children believe that public education is a human right, a constitutional guarantee, and a central part of God's plan for human flourishing. Not beholden to any special interest group, political party, or church office they believe in local democracy, cooperation across lines of difference, and organizing to support public education opportunities for Texas children. This is lived out in acts of prayer, service, and advocacy that respect God's good gifts of religious liberty and church-state separation.

Charles Foster Johnson, Guest Preacher, Sunday, July 17

Charles Foster Johnson is a pastor and public education advocate.

He is founder and pastor of Bread, a faith community in Fort Worth, Texas. Throughout his forty-five-year pastoral ministry, he has served churches in Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Texas, including the Second Baptist Church of Lubbock and the Trinity Baptist Church of San Antonio.

Rev. Johnson served on the faculty of McAfee School of Theology, Mercer University, as Visiting Professor of Preaching. He has served as a pastoral mentor for students at Perkins School of Theology (SMU) and Brite Divinity School (TCU), where he has served as a trustee since 2013. He is involved in civic and denominational life and has been twice named "Baptist of the Year" by the Baptist Center for Ethics (in 2004 and 2018). He was inducted into Morehouse College's Martin Luther King Jr. Board of Preachers in 2008. He was named national "Outstanding Friend of Public Education" by the Horace Mann League in 2020.

In 2013, he founded Pastors for Texas Children, a statewide ecumenical organization mobilizing the faith community for public education support and advocacy. PTC now has over 2,500 faith partners throughout Texas. The national organization, Pastors for Children, now has networks in eight states.

Rev. Johnson is a frequent preacher and speaker in university, church, business, education, and non-profit circles. He has written for numerous publications and has made guest appearances on cable network news shows. He is married to Jana, has three children, and three grandchildren.
